In the quaint and cozy town of Kindred, where knitting needles click harmoniously, a chilling crime casts a shadow over the community. When the beloved founder of the local knitting guild, Eloise "Ellie" Sherman, is found murdered in her own yarn shop, it's up to Regan to unravel the tangled threads of the mystery.

A Suspect Pool as Colorful as a Yarn Palette

As Regan delves into her investigation, she encounters a vibrant cast of suspects, each with their own motives and secrets hidden within the loops of their yarn. From Ellie's envious rivals to the enigmatic yarn spinner with a mysterious past, Regan must carefully interrogate and analyze every stitch of evidence.

Among the suspects are:

* Lydia Winthrop, the ambitious head of a rival knitting guild, whose competitive nature may have driven her to extremes. * Jasper "Jazzy" James, a charismatic yarn spinner with a hazy alibi and a penchant for secrets. * Zelda Hawthorne, an eccentric artist with a love of knitting and a penchant for the macabre. * Henry Prescott, the town's grumpy librarian, who harbors a secret crush on Regan and possesses a surprising knowledge of knots and fibers.

Unraveling the Clues with a Cunning Eye

As Regan delves deeper into the investigation, she must decipher cryptic knitting patterns, interpret hidden messages in embroidery, and analyze the fibers used in the victim's shawl. Each clue becomes a piece of the intricate puzzle, leading Regan closer to the truth.

Along the way, she enlists the help of her loyal friends, including her tech-savvy sister, Maggie, and her devoted boyfriend, Jake. Together, they form an unstoppable team, using their combined skills to unravel the tangled threads of the crime.
