Confluence of Poetry and Music

Originally conceived as a song cycle, "Schwanengesang" showcases Schubert's extraordinary ability to fuse poetry and music. This collection of 14 songs, written in 1828, sets to music verses by two acclaimed poets:

Ludwig Rellstab and Heinrich Heine. The result is a tapestry of poignant melodies, evocative harmonies, and thought-provoking lyrics that explore themes of love, loss, and the inevitable passage of time.

A Treasury of Intimate Masterpieces

- "Liebesbotschaft" ("Love's Message"): A delicate and ethereal opening piece that sets the tone for the introspective journey to come.
- "Aufenthalt" ("Rest"): A longing melody and flowing accompaniment express the yearning for a distant land.
- "Ständchen" ("Serenade"): A playful serenade that captures the essence of youthful romance.
- "Der Atlas" ("The Atlas"): A powerful and moving depiction of the burdens we carry.
- "Ihr Bild" ("Her Image"): A haunting reverie that lingers in the memory long after the final notes have faded.
- "Das Fischermädchen" ("The Fisherman's Daughter"): A tragic ballad that tells the tale of a broken heart.
- "Die Stadt" ("The Town"): A nostalgic portrayal of a beloved city and its bittersweet memories.
- "Der Doppelgänger" ("The Doppelgänger"): A chilling exploration of the uncanny and the duality of human nature.
- "Die Taubenpost" ("The Pigeon Post"): A playful and endearing song that brings a touch of lightheartedness to the collection.
- "Am Meer" ("By the Sea"): A contemplative and serene piece that reflects on the vastness and mystery of the ocean.

- "Der Wanderer an den Mond" ("The Wanderer to the Moon"): A heartfelt ode to the moon and its celestial beauty.
- "Die Krähe" ("The Crow"): A haunting and enigmatic piece that explores the themes of death and mourning.
- "Der Wegweiser" ("The Signpost"): A profound and thought-provoking song that examines the choices we make in life.
- "Abschied" ("Farewell"): A poignant and deeply moving farewell that brings the collection to a close.
