From the historic streets of Valletta to the picturesque villages of Corsica, the Shaland Jewish Travel Guide leads you on a captivating exploration of the Jewish experience in these enchanting islands. Discover the stories of the early Jewish settlers, their contributions to local society, and the enduring legacy they have left behind.

Unveiling the Synagogues of Malta

Malta's synagogues stand as testaments to the island's rich Jewish history. The Shaland Jewish Travel Guide takes you inside these sacred spaces, revealing their architectural beauty and the fascinating stories they hold. Visit the 17th-century Sha'ar Hashamayim Synagogue, the oldest synagogue in Malta, and marvel at its intricate carvings and stunning interior. Explore the Great Synagogue of Valletta, a magnificent Moorish-style building that has served as the center of Jewish life in Malta for over a century.

Exploring the Jewish Quarters of Corsica

Corsica's Jewish heritage is deeply intertwined with the island's history. The Shaland Jewish Travel Guide guides you through the charming Jewish quarters of Ajaccio, Bastia, and Cargèse, where you will discover hidden synagogues, historic cemeteries, and remnants of a vibrant Jewish community. Learn about the lives of the Jewish families who settled in Corsica, their professions, and the challenges they faced.

Immerse Yourself in Jewish Culture

Beyond the synagogues and Jewish quarters, the Shaland Jewish Travel Guide introduces you to the vibrant Jewish communities that continue to thrive in Malta and Corsica. Meet local Jewish people, learn about their traditions and customs, and experience the warmth and hospitality that has characterized Jewish life on these islands for generations. Attend Shabbat services, participate in Jewish festivals, and savor the flavors of traditional Jewish cuisine.
