Behind the Scenes: The By George Collection

The genesis of the By George Collection lies in the friendship between Evans and George Christy, a renowned Hollywood columnist and photographer. Over the span of decades, Christy captured countless candid moments of Evans's private and public life, amassing a treasure trove of images that provide a window into the producer's complex and enigmatic character.

The collection encompasses a diverse range of photographs, from intimate snapshots of Evans with close friends and family to behind-the-scenes glimpses of his iconic film productions. Each image tells a story, revealing facets of Evans's personality, his passions, and the glamour and excess that defined the golden age of Hollywood.

Iconic Moments, Personal Intimacy

Through the By George Collection, we witness Evans's rise to stardom as head of Paramount Pictures, where he greenlit cinematic masterpieces such as "The Godfather" and "Rosemary's Baby." We see him navigating the treacherous waters of Hollywood politics, his charisma and audacious spirit guiding his path.

Beyond the public persona, the collection offers poignant insights into Evans's personal life. Candid shots capture his close relationship with Ali MacGraw, his love for his children, and the solitude he often sought amidst the whirlwind of his career. The images reveal a man of contradictions—a visionary leader with a vulnerable heart, a risk-taker with a deep yearning for connection.
