One day, Sammy was swimming along when he saw a large shadow in the water. He quickly turned and saw a great white shark swimming towards him. Sammy knew that he had to swim away as fast as he could, or he would be the shark's next meal.

Sammy swam as fast as he could, but the great white shark was faster. The shark was gaining on him, and Sammy knew that he would not be able to outswim it for long.

Just when Sammy thought that all was lost, he saw a group of dolphins swimming towards him. The dolphins were friendly creatures, and they knew that Sammy was in trouble.

The dolphins swam around Sammy, forming a protective circle around him. The great white shark was afraid of the dolphins, and it swam away.

Sammy was safe! He thanked the dolphins for their help, and then he swam away to find his friends.

Sammy told his friends about what had happened, and they were all amazed at his story. They knew that Sammy was a brave and resourceful fish, and they were proud to have him as a friend.

From that day on, Sammy was known as the "Great White Shark Survivor." He continued to explore the ocean, but he was always careful to watch out for sharks.

Swim Away, Swim Away: The Great White Shark Is After Me! is a thrilling tale of survival and friendship that is perfect for young readers who love animals and adventure.

With its vivid illustrations and exciting story, Swim Away, Swim Away is sure to become a favorite bedtime story for years to come.
