1. Visit the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame is a must-see for any music lover. The museum tells the story of rock and roll music, from its early roots to its modern-day incarnations. You'll see exhibits on some of the biggest names in rock and roll, including Elvis Presley, The Beatles, and Jimi Hendrix.
2. Take a walk or bike ride along the Cuyahoga River and Towpath Trail. The Cuyahoga River and Towpath Trail is a beautiful 20-mile trail that winds along the Cuyahoga River. The trail is perfect for walking, running, or biking, and it offers stunning views of the river and the city.

It is considered one of the best biking trails in the whole nation by the members of Rails-to-Trails Conservancy (RTC).

3. Visit the Cleveland Museum of Art. The Cleveland Museum of Art is one of the top art museums in the country. The museum has a vast collection of art from all over the world, including paintings, sculptures, and artifacts. You'll find works by some of the most famous artists in history, including Rembrandt, Monet, and Picasso.
4. Take a ferry ride to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Annex. The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Annex is located on the other side of the Cuyahoga River from the main museum. The annex houses additional exhibits on rock and roll music, as well as a theater and a concert hall.
5. Visit the Greater Cleveland Aquarium. The Greater Cleveland Aquarium is home to more than 5,000 animals from around the world. You'll see sharks, penguins, sea turtles, and more. The aquarium also has a 4-D theater and a touch tank where you can interact with some of the animals.
6. Attend a Cleveland Indians game at Progressive Field. The Cleveland Indians are one of the most storied teams in baseball history. Progressive Field is a beautiful ballpark located right on the shores of Lake Erie. Catching a game at Progressive Field is a great way to experience the excitement of baseball and the passion of Cleveland fans.
7. Visit the West Side Market. The West Side Market is a public market located in the Ohio City neighborhood of Cleveland. The market is home to more than 100 vendors selling a variety of food and drink items. You'll find everything from fresh produce to meats and cheeses to baked goods. The West Side Market is a great place to shop for local ingredients or to grab a bite to eat.

8. Take a walk or bike ride through the Cleveland Metroparks. The Cleveland Metroparks is a system of parks and trails that spans more than 23,000 acres. The Metroparks offer a variety of activities, including hiking, biking, fishing, and boating. You can also visit the Cleveland Zoo, which is located in the Metroparks.
9. Attend a concert at the Blossom Music Center. The Blossom Music Center is a world-renowned concert venue located in the Cuyahoga Valley National Park. The venue hosts a variety of concerts throughout the year, including classical, pop, and rock. The Blossom Music Center is a beautiful place to see a concert, and it's also a great way to enjoy the outdoors.
10. Visit the USS Cod Submarine Memorial. The USS Cod Submarine Memorial is a decommissioned World War II submarine that is now a museum ship. You can tour the submarine and learn about the history of the USS Cod and the role that it played in World War II. It is one of the most visited museums in the northern Ohio area.

These are just a few of the many things to do in Cleveland. With its beautiful waterfront, world-class museums, and delicious food, there's something for everyone in Cleveland. So come on down and explore all that this great city has to offer!
