In "The Rise of the American Corporate Security State", acclaimed investigative journalist Jane Mayer exposes a disturbing trend: the increasing power and influence of corporations in shaping our national security policy.

Drawing on a wealth of original research and insider interviews, Mayer reveals how corporations have infiltrated government agencies, blurred the lines between public and private interests, and undermined democratic accountability.

Mayer's meticulously researched book is a must-read for anyone concerned about the future of our democracy. She shows how the corporate security state has eroded our civil liberties, undermined our ability to hold our government accountable, and made us less safe.
