The Genius of the Composers

This remarkable collection encompasses piano concerti from the Baroque era to the Romantic period, featuring the works of legendary composers such as:

- Johann Sebastian Bach: Immerse yourself in the intricate counterpoint and mathematical precision of Bach's Brandenburg Concertos, where the piano takes on a prominent role as both a soloist and an integral part of the ensemble.
- Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart: Mozart's piano concerti are renowned for their elegance, grace, and lyrical melodies. Experience the sheer beauty of his Piano Concerto No. 21 in C major, "Elvira Madigan," and delve into the emotional depth of his Piano Concerto No. 20 in D minor.
- Ludwig van Beethoven: Beethoven's piano concerti are monumental works that push the boundaries of musical expression. Witness the grandeur and drama of his Piano Concerto No. 5 in E-flat major, "Emperor," and the introspective and lyrical qualities of his Piano Concerto No. 4 in G major.
- Frédéric Chopin: Chopin's piano concerti are characterized by their poetic and evocative nature. Feel the passion and longing in his Piano Concerto No. 1 in E minor, and the ethereal beauty of his Piano Concerto No. 2 in F minor.
- Johannes Brahms: Brahms' piano concerti are known for their academic rigor and emotional intensity. Explore the majestic sweep of his Piano Concerto No. 1 in D minor, and the introspective and autumnal hues of his Piano Concerto No. 2 in B-flat major.
